(18) Burger = Bürger

(18) the same word for citizen in the old and new spelling.

(19) Hauptrecht
auch mortuarium, Todfall, siehe Erläuterung Ziffer (2)

(19) literally Headright, also called mortuarium, Todfall, see the explanation in number (2).

(20) Leibeigenschaft
persönliche abhängigkeit vom Leibherrn, hier vom Markgrafen, die zu Frondiensten, Geld-und Natural abgaben verpflichtete; in Baden 1783 aufgehoben.

(20) literally, possession of your body, personal independence from control of your body or person by the body master, here the Margrave to whom they had to pay or give compulsory service, or pay money or gifts, this became illegal in 1783.

(21) sen. = lat.:senior = der Ältere, alt

(21) this is for the Latin senior, older, or elder, or senior.

(22) Hochberg
Grafschaft in Baden bei Freiburg

(22) literally high mountain, the name of a county near Freiburg in Baden

(23) oneris lat.:onus = Last

(23) This Latin word is used in English for onus, or burden, as in the burden of proof, also hardship.

(24) Unsern ....
Abkürzung: Unsern Gruß, Lieber, Getrauer

(24) literally our, because of the need to write by hand the greeting "Our greetings, Dear, Faithful ..."is here abbreviated to Unsern ....

(25) Serenissimus
lat.: Durlachtigster, bis ins 19. Jahrhundert Anrede der Fürsten

(25) This Latin word in the superlative is the word for the shiniest one, and in the German the most penetrating light a fanciful term for prince, used till the 19th century.

(26) Neuländer
Auswanderer nach Pennsylvanien

(26) Newlander, emigrant to a new land or place, Pennsylvania in our papers.

(27) OAmt = Oberamt

(27) an officially accepted contraction for Oberamt, meaning top office, one reference uses the term high bailiff.

(28) Supplicieren
lat.: Supplik = Bittschrift, supplicieren = Bittschrift einreichen

(28) to supplicate or implore, the Latin for a writing of request to submit a request.

(29) Manumission
lat.: manumissio = Freilassung eines Sklaven, hier: Freilassung eines Leibeigenen, wofür die Manumission, eine Steuer, zu entrichten war.

(29) emancipation, here the freeing of a serf, for which freedom a tax is to be exacted.

(30) prästanda prästiret
seine Obliegenheiten erfüllen, seinen Verpflichtungen genügen

(30) official language in Latin for having satisfied his obligations.

(31) Decret lat.: decretum = Beschluß, Entscheidung

(31) Latin for decree, act, or decision.

(32) Lagerbuch Verzeichnis aller Rechte und Dienstbarkeiten

(32) Ledger listing all rights and obligations, and acts pertaining thereto.

(33) Pars sekunde 2.Teil

(33) Latin and German for Part 2.

(34) Dlach

(34) abbreviation for Durlach.

(35) Cruhe

(35) abbreviation for Karlsruhe.